WHAT DOES IT MEAN?

"N" (NUN)

"G" (GIMMEL)

"H" (HAY)

"SH" (SHIN)

DREYDEL: A dreydel is a top with four sides. Each side has a Hebrew letter on it. Put all together, these letters say: "Nes Gadol Hayah Sham," which means; "A great miracle happened there." To play the game, each player puts a candy (or a penny) into a container. The players take turns spinning the dreydel. When it stops at "N" (NUN), the player gets nothing. If it stops at "G" (GIMMEL) the player gets everything in the container. "H" (HAY) means the player gets half of what is in the container and "SH" (SHIN) means the player has to pay a candy (or a penny). The player who wins the most is the winner of the game.

GELT: Gelt is Hebrew for money, and is one of the traditional gifts given by adults to children for Hanukkah.

TZEDAKAH: Giving Hanukkah gelt to someone who needs it very much.

LATKES: It is traditional to eat something cooked in oil for Hanukkah. Latkes are potato pancakes which are fried in oil. Some Jews in Israel eat doughnuts which are also fried in oil.

MACCABEES: "Maccab" means "hammer" in Hebrew. The Jews who fought the Syrians struck like a hammer. They were led by the five sons of Mattathias with Judah as their chief.

MENORAH: The Hanukkah menorah is a nine-branched candlestick. The extra branch is the Shammas which is used to light all the candles for the eight days of Hanukkah.

HANUKKAH BLESSINGS

Adults and children say one of the many blessings and light the candles together. As you face the Hanukkah menorah, place the first candle on your right. All other candles are added to the left. Light the Shammass, and holding it in your hand say:

We light the lights for the miracles, the wonders, the triumphs and the victories which You made for all our ancestors. All the eight days of Hanukkah these lights are holy. We are only to look at them so that we will thank and praise Your Name, Your miracles, Your wonders and Your triumphs.

Or you can say:

Blessed are You, Lord our God Ruler of the Universe, who has made us holy with His commandments and has commanded us to kindle the Hanukkah lights.

On the first night of Hanukkah, we also add:

Blessed are You, Lord our God, Ruler of the Universe, who has kept us alive and strong and brought us to this season.

Light the candles. The new candle is always lit first.
